

Jonah Bank is your Energy Advocate.

If you're involved in the growing Energy Industry in Wyoming, our expert team of lenders is ready to help you succeed. We can help finance equipment, real estate and rolling stock for producers, operators and service companies. In addition we offer competitive operating accounts with cash management solutions to make your banking easier and more profitable. We are a strong community bank and proud of our roots in the energy industry!

Always Finish What You Start.

Our team brings extensive experience and important connections in the Energy Industry to your banking needs. We have an early understanding of the excellent opportunities for Wyoming businesses through knowledge of shale plays including the Niobrara and Mowry Finds, Bakken Field, unconventional gas, coal bed methane and traditional geologic exploration models.
